ANNOUNCEMENT

European Journal of Zoological Research is inviting new Editorial Board Members. As the journal grows, we must ensure that it can handle the increased volume of submissions while maintaining our high editorial standards. As a result, we're looking to grow our editorial team. We would like the applications from researchers with a background in one of the disciplines below:

- Physiology
- Ecology
- Vertebrate Anatomy
- Invertebrates Anatomy
- Cell Biology
- Genetics
- Embryology
- Malacology
- Mammalogy
- Parasitology
- Planktology
- Zoogeography
- Entomology

Criteria

Research scholars, who are dedicated, are welcome to apply to European Journal of Zoological Research. Our Editorial Board Members must have a minimum of 15+ research papers published in reputable, journals that must follow peer-review.

Role and Responsibilities

The Editorial Board Member is primarily responsible for assessing articles for peer review suitability and selecting appropriate reviewers who fulfill the Journal's standards.

An Editorial Board Member for Zoological Research must be engaged at least two manuscripts per month within their field of expertise. Contact us at E-mail: zoologisci@peerjournals.com. If you are interested in becoming our Editorial Board Member.
